PROMINENT YOUNG MEN OF THE STATE
ARE TAKING PART IN THE PROCEEDING
TODAY—COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., April 28.—Santa Cruz is in gala attire in honor of the visiting Native Sons. Business houses are decorated with the national and carnal colors and the streets are thronged with people. Most of the delegates were met at the depot by a local reception committee.

The first session of the Grand Parlor convened at Odd Fellows' Hall this morning.

First Grand Vice-President Lewis F. Byington presided, owing to the absence of the Grand President, Frank L. Coombs, now serving in Congress in Washington.

After the formalities of opening the chair appointed the following committee on credentials: H. J. Melsaue of Parlor No. 133, San Rafael; R. P. E. Troy of Niantic Parlor No. 195, San Francisco; P. O. Schuna of Alameda Parlor No. 47, Oakland, and W. W. Shannon of California Parlor No. 1, San Francisco.

A telegram from President Coombs was received expressing regret at his inability to be present and wishing success and prosperity for the order. Ex-Grand President Sproule was made

COL. BABCOCK RESIGNS AS COURT COMMISSIONER.

Clarence Crowell Will Be Named as His Successor.

After seven years' service, Colonel George Babcock today handed in his written resignation as Court Commissioner for Alameda county.

His resignation is to take effect on the 30th instant.

The Superior Judges by whom the office is appointive, will take action upon the resignation tomorrow and will prepare a written reply to Colonel Babcock.

Colonel Babcock's successor will be Clarence Crowell, president of the Republican County Central Committee and member of the law firm of Crowell & Leach. For some time it has been rumored that Colonel Babcock was to resign and things have been gradually shaping themselves for the appointment of Crowell. The latter is the only person who has been mentioned as a successor in the office.

During his seven years as Court Commissioner, Colonel Babcock has heard testimony in more than seven hundred divorce cases, besides acting as referee in other cases in which the Superior Judges did not time to examine. The office, although dependent solely upon fees is a lucrative one and is considered a rare political plum.

Before he was appointed Court Commissioner, Colonel Babcock had served in various capacities in the Mint in San Francisco. He has also served as president of the Veterans' Republican Club and has held office in other Republican organizations in Alameda. He is also well known as a political orator and public speaker.

"My resignation," he said this morning, "is purely voluntary. There was no forcing in the matter and everything is harmonious with all concerned. The reason I am resigning is because I have decided to accept a position in which the duties are less arduous. It is a matter of choice with me. During all the time I have been in office there has not been one complaint against the manner in which I have performed my duties. Nothing has been said to me concerning a successor for the office."

"I have absolute proof that mail addressed to me has been tampered with. This is no supposition on my part, but I state it emphatically. No half-hearted methods will be used in ferreting out persons who are guilty of this crime. Underhand methods have been used against me, but when the parties responsible are under the thumb of my mail I think they overreached themselves."

President Cornelius spoke strongly on this point and is prepared to make it interesting for some one who has been tampering with his letter.

A meeting of the Carpenters' Union will be held at the Temple, 117 Turk street, on Wednesday evening.

At this meeting it is expected a business agent for the union will be elected. President Cornelius is the most likely candidate for the position.

Permanent headquarters will be established at 117 Turk street.

Everything Is Moving
Smoothly in San Francisco.

STATEMENT MADE BY PRES. CORNELIUS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—"We are resting after our hard-fought and victorious battle of last week," said President Richard Cornelius of the Street Carriers' Union this morning. "Everything was conceded to us that we could possibly expect from the United Railroad directors. In fact, we got more than we anticipated. The recognition of our union was our strongest right. We have been recognized."

"While it is true the company will not insist on its employees joining the union, I think we have plenty of misadventures at work who will look out after that end of it."

"The members are jubilant over the success of the strike. They are proud of the record they have made, proud of the fact that the first great strike conducted without resort to violence of any nature was accomplished by the Carpenters' Union of San Francisco."

"We will now get ready to perfect our union for permanent organization. Officers will be elected and numerous other details will receive attention."

"A matter of greatest importance which I think we will take up will be the question of investigating the party or parties responsible for interfering with mail addressed to the officers of

KING'S DAUGHTERS HOME FOR INCURABLES IS DESTROYED.

Two Inmates Are Badly Burned---Heroic Work of the Nurses at the Home---Society People Turn Out and Render Valuable Service.

Forty-five patients at the Kings Daughters' Home at Eleventh and Oak streets, narrowly escaped death in a disastrous fire at that institution this morning.

A patient fell from an epileptic fit and overturned a kerosene stove, and before an alarm could be given the north wing of the building was in flames.

HEROIC WORK OF A WOMAN.

Owing to the heroism of Miss Lena Tallier, one of the nurses, all the patients were removed, but two were badly injured. They were taken to the receiving hospital, where it was found that William Bray, aged 72 years, was so severely burned that he will probably not recover.

John H. Murray, another of the patients was severely burned about the hands and face, but his wounds will not prove serious.

It was 11:30 o'clock when the fire occurred. Bray had been boiling some water on the kerosene stove to shave preparatory to eating his luncheon, when he was seized with an epileptic fit.

In falling he overturned the lamp and ignited the carpet. What occurred after that no one knows, as Bray is so severely burnt that he cannot talk and no one was present at the time. The next thing known about the fire was when the flames burst into the next room, which was occupied by Murray.

HE COULD NOT ESCAPE.

The latter was bedridden and before he could even shout for help the flames enveloped his bed. He arose with difficulty and gave the alarm, but before any one could answer his call the entire north wing of the building was in flames.

HEROIC NURSES.

The heroic nurses and society women of the fashionable neighborhood at once ran to the aid of the patients and succeeded in removing them all before any further damage could be done.

They were taken to the spacious yard of the home and then Miss Tallier, almost exhausted, turned in the fire alarm. The fire department, although summoned late, succeeded in confining the flames to the interior and roof of the north wing of the building.

The damage will amount to about $5,000, as nearly as can be estimated at the present time.

The patients who were removed were taken to the Fabiola and East Bay Sanitariums.

BURNS PROBABLY FATAL.

William Bray, the aged man who is alleged to have upset the lamp which caused the fire, was badly burned about the face, hands and body. His right foot was nearly burned off. He was given immediate attention as soon as the patients had been rescued. His burns were terrible to see and were so extremely painful that he continually moaned, although only semi-conscious. The only word which he could articulate was "water."

He was suffering such intense agony that it was impossible to learn from him anything concerning the origin of the fire.

His wounds were bound up by Dr. O. D. Hamlin, Dr. J. G. Thompson, W. H. Dunn, and other physicians, who worked heroically in relieving the pain and suffering of the unfortunate.

J. H. Murray, the other man who was burned, was less severely injured.

HEROINE'S STORY.

Miss Lena Tallier, the nurse who discovered the flames and whose actions throughout the entire trying ordeal were those of a heroine, was much averse to being interviewed. To a Tribune reporter, however, she gave the following version of the affair.

"The whole thing is too terrible to talk about. I hardly know how it happened. The unfortunate man who overturned the lamp or stove occupied a room in the northeastern wing in the men's department. The fire must have been burning some time before it was discovered. I saw the smoke filling the corridors and so on discovered the fire was in the room occupied by Mr. Bray. I immediately gave the alarm and then dragged the unfortunate man into the hall way."

"In a few moments every one about the hospital was engaged in carrying the inmates out. Mr. Murray, who occupied a room adjoining Mr. Bray was the next one rescued. He was also very badly burned."

"After that we began taking the men patients out as rapidly as possible. I thank God that the fire did not cause the loss of a greater number of people."

The flames spread so quickly that we did not have much time to act. Every one worked heroically, and all the patients were rescued without actual loss of life."

SOCIETY PEOPLE ASSIST.

Prominent society people were on the ground soon after the blaze was noticed and they gave every assistance in their power.

Bed clothing was brought from their homes; medicines, bandages, sunshades and liquors were freely given to aid the suffering ones.

Some of the prominent society people noticed were: Mrs. C. C. Clay, Mrs. A. D. Thomson, Miss Mollie E. Connors, Mrs. Robert Knight, Mrs. Henry Dieckmann, Mrs. E. B. Beck, Mrs. Frank Brigham and Mrs. G. Abbot.

MRS. KNIGHT'S BRAVE ACT.

It was due to the presence of mind of Mrs. Robert Knight that the life of an infant confined in the building was saved.

Mrs. Knight rushed into the building and grabbed the little one up and carried it to her home at 122 Tenth street, directly across the street and saw that it had every attention.

WAGONS IN SERVICE.

Express wagons were pressed into service to carry the helpless to places of safety.

Many were taken to Fabiola Hospital and Mrs. Chabot of that hospital was on the scene seeing that everything possible was done for the unfortunates.

MATRON BROWN'S STORY.

Mrs. Matilda Brown, president of the Kings Daughters' Home made a formal statement to the press representative in which she urged that the citizens of Oakland be solicited to extend assistance to the stricken institution.

MRS. BROWN SAID:

"I am unable to estimate the damage done by the fire, but we have suffered heavily and as we have practically no funds, the institution is greatly in need of help."

"The neighbors and prominent citizens have already come to our assistance in a noble manner, and I am sure that when the great body of citizens learn of our loss they will respond in kind. Beds and bedding have been destroyed and there are accommodations in the main wing of the building for only about twenty patients, while we have thirty-nine on the roll."

"Those who wish to aid us in our extremely may call at any of the newspaper offices or at my residence, 566 California avenue, telephone main 364."

"I wish to express heartfelt thanks for the generous proffer of help from the various hospitals, and am particularly grateful to the fire department collectively and individually for their splendid work in extinguishing the fire. The fact that the main wing of the building is absolutely uninjured from either fire or water, notwithstanding that it was surrounded by a blazing frame structure during the conflagration, speaks volumes for the efficiency of the department."

"The attendants of the home did splendid work in rescuing our helpless charges, particularly the matron, Miss Tallier."

"It was due to her presence of mind that Mr. Bray was not entirely consumed."

Matrons Jones and Tallier displayed great presence of mind and executive ability in disposing of and caring for the helpless invalids, in which work they were ably seconded by Dr. T. A. Williams, the attendant physician.

"There were eleven patients in the wing in which the blaze started," said Miss Jones. "These were removed safely with the exception of Bray and Murray. The attendants behaved well in the extremity and the neighbors lent splendid aid. I wish to thank the various physicians for their generous aid."

LIST OF INMATES.

Following is a list of the inmates of the home:

Mrs. Aigeltinger, Mrs. Stubbs, Mrs. Dewey, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Hennel, Miss Haldstrom, Miss Chenoworth, Miss Vincent, Miss Luckey, Mrs. Henney, Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Braun, Mrs. Shrader, Mrs. Banc, Miss Luna, Miss Rydberg, Mrs. Reulker, Mrs. Ella Powers, Mrs. Hunt, Charles L. Ackerman, William Bray, Capt. Warren N. Young, John H. Murray, Mr. A. May, Mr. Hatch, Mr. Wade, Judge Humphrey, Mrs. Kuss, Mr. A. Larkin, Mr. Canfield, Dr. J. G. Mickle, baby Freddie Kirchkofer, Mr. Kittredge, Mr. Montpelier, Oliver Blackwell.

THE ATTENDANTS.

The attendants who all did efficient work in rescuing the inmates were the following: Mr. E. Rick, Mr. A. Williams, Miss Ingraham, Miss Barter, Miss Tallier, Miss Crawford, Mrs. Winden, Mrs. Lowrey, Mrs. Simpson.

AN HISTORIC BUILDING.

The history of the old building begins nearly as far back as does that of Oakland itself. In its earlier days it was a place of hospitality and center of social safety as in its latter days it has been a well spring of charity and human kindness. It was built in the early sixties by General Heath. It was at the time when the gold of the mines and the gold of the East were pouring into the marts of the West and when Oakland was the hub of the social whirl. For a number of years General Heath and his family made it their residence and by their royal entertainments made it the center of Oakland's social life.

Early in the seventies General Heath sold to General Keyes, but, notwithstanding the transfer of title, there was no change made in the fashionable circle that made the home its Mecca.

General Keyes proved himself as hospitable a host as was his predecessor.

Late in the seventies another transfer was made and the home became the Poston Seminary, which for years was the finishing school for the brightest stars in California's brilliant social firmament. There's many the fashionable Oakland matron of today who matriculated from Mrs. Poston's Seminary into the ranks of the elite.

When Dr. Keeley discovered his famous gold cure he cast about for a hospital site on the coast, and one of the first selections made by his agents was the seminary building. Negotiations ended in another transfer and up to the time the Kings Daughters came into possession of the building it was the place of last hope and resort for the victims of drink and drug. When the popularity of the Keeley cure waned to an unprofitable point the Kings Daughters acquired the property and made of it a haven of peace it has been to those whose years had come upon them.

AN APPEAL.

"The Kings Daughters' Home for Incurables, one of the worthiest institutions of our city, has met with a most serious loss by fire. Bedding and bedclothes are needed at once. The undersigned appeals with confidence to the parishioners of the Church of the Advent, East Oakland, for a quick and generous contribution of these articles. Send them at once to the home, Eleventh and Oak streets."

WM. CARSON SHAW, Rector.

MRS. SMITH'S OFFER.

Mrs. P. M. Smith has offered one of her cottages for the patients of the Kings Daughters.

ment has been trying to procure his delivery to the Missouri authorities as a matter of course.

Considerable obstacle has been encountered in the shape of a polite suggestion of the Mexican authorities that they will do this, but only on the understanding that the United States Government will reciprocate in kind when occasion arises. This is an embarrassing condition, impossible of fulfillment, for no American could deliver a fugitive from justice if his offense is not set forth in the extradition treaty.

It is thought an effort will be made to secure the punishment of Kratz by Mexican courts if he cannot be returned to Missouri.

NAVAL PROGRAM FOR NEXT YEAR IS ANNOUNCED.

CHAIRMAN FOSS TELLS WHAT IS NEEDED IN OUR NAVY AND MAKES COMPARISONS.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The naval program of 1903, as presented in the naval appropriation bill and the report filed today by Chairman Foss of the House Naval Committee, is one of unusual interest. The report does not take as optimistic a view of our naval progress as is generally held and Mr. Foss points out that comparatively few of our ships have any real fighting value. He accompanies this with a statement of the enormous naval armament and progress of other countries, particularly Germany. It is shown by the report that the total number of vessels of our navy, built and building is 138, and the total cost will be $235,682,209. The report adds:

"While we have built and are building, all told, 138 ships, yet comparatively few of them have any real fighting value. Our naval progress lies almost entirely in our 18 battle-ships, 8 armored cruisers and 21 protected cruisers. The rest of our ships would cut but little figure in actual war. Ships of the battle line practically alone contain the naval strength of the nation."

Referring to the foreign naval progress the report says:

"Of all the countries Germany has been building during the last few years faster than any of the others. Her ship building programme started in 1893 and will be completed in 1903, possibly 1907, instead of 1916, as at first planned. This programme will give her in all 35 battle-ships, 14 large cruisers, 28 small cruisers and 96 torpedo boats. After the completion of this programme the plan contemplates new construction to replace ships which, though still serviceable, may have reached the prescribed age limit."

Early in the seventies General Heath sold to General Keyes, but, notwithstanding the transfer of title, there was no change made in the fashionable circle that made the home its Mecca.

General Keyes proved himself as hospitable a host as was his predecessor.

Late in the seventies another transfer was made and the home became the Poston Seminary, which for years was the finishing school for the brightest stars in California's brilliant social firmament. WELL KNOWN ACTOR DIED THIS AFTERNOON IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Sol Smith Russell, the actor, died here at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Sol Smith Russell first became noted when he traveled with the Berger family. He had a quaint humor with a pathetic turn that made him very popular. On and off the stage he was a lovable character. There was a fine touch in his stage work that will long be remembered for its truth to nature and its honest sentiment. It was always clean and wholesome. Mr. Russell was a New Englander, and in company he was the typical Yankee refined by a most sympathetic humor that never lost its flavor. For twenty-five years Sol Smith Russell has been a favorite with the American public.

O'CONNOR LEAVES A SMALL ESTATE.
Mrs. Ellen T. O'Connor, widow of the late John J. O'Connor, this afternoon filed a petition for letters of administration on her late husband's estate.

O'Connor was killed at Emeryville recently by Thomas Devine, his aged and life-long friend, who imagined that the deceased had despoiled his home.

The petition, which was filed by Attorney W. J. Donohue, sets forth that the estate consisted of a lot and dwelling in Oakland, worth $2,000, two unimproved lots in Berkeley, valued at $1,000, and personal property valued at $150.

MATTER GOES TO A COMMITTEE.

The Board of Supervisors at its meeting this morning deferred the approving of the minutes of the last meeting until certain corrections could be made. It appears that a resolution was adopted at the last meeting granting permission to H. O. Morrow, representing the Pacific Oil Company, to lay oil pipes "in and across any public road."

The Supervisors intended that a particular road should be designated, but the resolution was adopted by mistake.

WANTS A FRANCHISE.
The application of F. M. Smith and F. C. Havens, representing the Oakland Transit Consolidated, for a street railroad franchise along and upon San Pablo avenue from its intersection with the northern line of the town of Berkeley to its intersection with the northern line of the County of Alameda, was referred to the Franchise Committee.

ROUTINE WORK.
Nelson A. McCoy was granted a free license to peddle.

The following applications for renewal were granted: It. Tozgo, Gabriel Nigamato and Esther Jones.

Five days' credits were allowed James Duffey and John McNeill, confined in the county jail for petit larceny.

The reports of I. H. Whitfield, road foreman of Mission Road District, and J. M. Brewer, foreman of Washington Road District, were approved.

Doll taxes charged against property of C. P. Herlitz and T. C. Nugent were ordered remitted. Herlitz filed an affidavit setting forth that he had paid his tax in Contra Costa county.

Nugent set forth that the property against which the charge was made was owned by his daughter.

A communication was received from the Associated Oil Company stating that that concern was prepared to undertake contracts for sprinkling the county roads with oil. The letter was referred to the committee of the whole.

A communication from F. W. Knight of Honolulu, asking that his poll tax in this county be canceled, was referred to the committee of the whole.

A letter from the Manufacturers' and Producers' Association called the attention of the Board to the fact that certain of the products of the association were being sold in the county at a price lower than the price at which they were sold in other parts of the state. The communication was handed to the committee of the whole.

The Fidelity and Casualty Company notified the Board that it had made an external inspection of the steam boiler at the infirmary and that it was in good condition.

The Paraffine Paint Company complained that the Snyder avenue sewer had become disjunct and was discharging upon the company's grounds. Immediate relief was demanded and the committee of the whole was referred to the committee of the whole.

GEN. SMITH DENOUNCED.
CONGRESSMAN SIBLEY IS AFTER THE MAN WHO RULED SAMAR.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—In the House today Mr. Sibley of Pennsylvania followed with a bitter denunciation of General Jacob D. Smith. He said he had always defended the course of the Administration and believed in expansion, but when it came to such orders as were issued by General Smith, humanity seemed to have marched backward.

"I have heard of the Saracen scourge, but thank God it took eighteen centuries after Calvary to produce a General Smith."

He declared that General Smith should be discharged in disgrace.

"He admits that he issued the orders to make Samar a howling wilderness," said Mr. Sibley, "and to kill all over ten years of age. Such a man should not be permitted to stay in the army until the sun goes down. He is a disgrace not only to himself, but to every man who wears his uniform. No man can justify such orders, no man can justify such a man as a defender of his country."

THE HAGUE, April 28.—The bulletin posted at "Castle Loo" this morning announced that Queen Wilhelmina passed a quiet night and that her temperature is decreasing.

Residents of "Castle Loo" say the Queen has so far improved in health as to be able to leave her bed today for a few moments, and that the Queen's mother is quite satisfied with the progress made.

CONGRESSMAN SIBLEY IS AFTER THE MAN WHO RULED SAMAR.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—In the House today Mr. Sibley of Pennsylvania followed with a bitter denunciation of General Jacob D. Smith. He said he had always defended the course of the Administration and believed in expansion, but when it came to such orders as were issued by General Smith, humanity seemed to have marched backward.

"I have heard of the Saracen scourge, but thank God it took eighteen centuries after Calvary to produce a General Smith."

He declared that General Smith should be discharged in disgrace.

"He admits that he issued the orders to make Samar a howling wilderness," said Mr. Sibley, "and to kill all over ten years of age. Such a man should not be permitted to stay in the army until the sun goes down. He is a disgrace not only to himself, but to every man who wears his uniform. No man can justify such orders, no man can justify such a man as a defender of his country."

THE HAGUE, April 28.—The bulletin posted at "Castle Loo" this morning announced that Queen Wilhelmina passed a quiet night and that her temperature is decreasing.

THEY TALKED OF CHEMISTRY

PACIFIC COAST ASSOCIATION HOLDS A MEETING AT BERKELEY.

EMPLOYEES TURNED DOWN TWO LIQUOR LICENSES TODAY.

Supervisors Are Asked to Take Action in the Matter.

MATTER IS TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

Thomas Harney, president of the Elmhurst District Improvement Club, appeared before the board of Supervisors this morning to protest, on behalf of his organization, against the present street car fare between Oakland and Elmhurst. He asked that the Board limit the fare to 5 cents.

"I have a map here," said Harney, which shows the distances of the various lines. From Berkeley to the City Hall in Oakland the fare is only 5 cents; yet from the City Hall to Elmhurst, which is a shorter distance, they charge 10 cents. Is that right? From Oakland to High street, which is three miles, the fare is only 5 cents. Why? Because they have a dog show there and the inhabitants of San Francisco patronize that show. They also patronize of a necessity the electric cars. But this is our last protest. It now rests with the District Attorney.

"The District Attorney has nothing to do with it. He simply advises us of the legality of our acts," said Mitchell.

"Well, we'll leave it to you," said Harney.

Chairman Mitchell stated that the Supervisors were aware of the fact that they had no jurisdiction in the premises, but he referred the matter to the District Attorney, who said he would give a written opinion within two weeks.

The announcement of the coming event has attracted no small amount of interest among the social sets of both this city and San Francisco.

A DISCARDED HUSBAND'S LAST TOUCH FOR A STAKE

Ernest Willard Crellin Sued For Damages By the Former Spouse of Camille D'Arville.

Andrew Wilson Lyons, acrobatic performer, wants $50,000 and evidently is not particular about how he gets it. His claim is leveled at Ernest Willard Crellin, and the ground for it is that Mr. Crellin married a lady who had the good taste to get a divorce from Lyons, who is a vaudeville artist with a fondness for champagne and frogs' legs and an earning capacity that will only permit of such refectations as beer and frankfurters.

The lady in the case is Camille d'Arville, a charming opera singer formerly prima donna of the Bostonians. Mr. Crellin belongs to a wealthy and prominent family of Oakland, and has many friends in this city.

Lyons, from whom Mrs. Crellin obtained a divorce in Chicago in September, 1899, alleges in a complaint filed in San Francisco last Saturday, that Mr. Crellin alienated his wife's affections from him. For this he demands a trifle of $50,000.

His bill of particulars is a remarkable display of what the sports call "nerve." He alleges that he has lost from $700 to $1,500 a week for ten years that his wife earned because of Mr. Crellin's influence. He also alleges that when his wife separated from him she had $25,000, of which he claims half. She left him to save any part of it.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Crellin are not backward in asserting that Lyons has commenced his suit merely in the hope of extorting money from them. They say the singer had not lived with Lyons for several years prior to her divorce in Chicago, that she had cast him off long before she ever became acquainted with Mr. Crellin because he insisted on following her around and spending her earnings.

When a very young girl, Madame d'Arville married Lyons in Holland, and after she became noted on the stage and could earn large salaries, her husband decided to assume a purely ornamental role. At last she separated from him to get free from his insistent monetary demands, and after several years of separation, she obtained the divorce from him in Chicago. It was not till a year later that she married Mr. Crellin in San Francisco.

It is a coincidence that this suit should be filed so soon after Mrs. Crellin had returned to the stage. After her marriage to Mr. Crellin, she returned to her professional life for a time, but recently accepted an offer to go on the Orpheum circuit. She is now singing in Brooklyn, but is living with her husband in New York. Some think Lyons has brought his suit at this juncture to harass her into paying him something to cease annoying her. While she was his wife he was plaguing her for money, and his latest performance is regarded as another "graff" to get a last touch at her pocketbook.

NOW IS THE TIME TO GIVE GLAD HAND.

Meeting at Athenian Club Was an Important One.

SOME SUGGESTIONS ABOUT BONDS.

Editor TRIBUNE: The Citizens' Meeting held at the Athenian Club rooms on Thursday evening last, convened at the call of the chairman of the Public Improvement Committee, selected by the City Council, was one of the most important gatherings ever held in the city of Oakland.

It demonstrated the fact that the people of this city have advanced from the situation of the progressive age, and with a unanimity of purpose that is encouraging to the last degree.

Let the motto now be: "Strike while the iron is hot!"

The only thing to fear is inertia. The people are ready to move—let the advance be made at once.

Follow the example set by the progressive people of Chicago—who, when an improvement is suggested, rally around the wheels with objections. The extending of the "glad hand" is the right thing to do—and this is the right time to do it.

Oakland has progressed beyond the bed-chamber era. It is a business city; a commercial city, located on the land side of the largest and best landlocked harbor in the world—in fact, an inland sea, furnishing a crescent-shaped water frontage of miles. It is the point where ships and cars meet to exchange merchandise.

Oakland holds the key to the situation. All that is required is unity of purpose, followed by unity of action—and the evidence now is, that both will prevail.

Success is to succeed—and to succeed there must be unity of purpose—no skulking, no bickering. For once let the Chicago spirit prevail, giving a long pull, a strong pull, and putting altogether for public improvements; for that public enterprise that shall eventually be adding up THIS great city of the Pacific Coast where Nature designed it should be, on the land side of this magnificent bay.

There, of necessity, must center the great railway systems of the Coast, and each and all should be welcomed, without "strings." Like Chicago, we should not only admit them but hold out the glad hand—and if there be no place, make a place! Nail the flag of Progression to the mast, and shoot the haysed individual who attempts to pull it down.

Do all this and more! Compete, at least in a small degree, with Nature, which has done so much for Oakland. Bore the city—and do not stint the amount. Let future generations help pay the expense. They will do it cheerfully—and more—they will rise up and call you blessed!

A. W. BISHOP.

PLEASANTON, April 28.—The party given at the Rose Hotel last Friday evening by the proprietor, D. F. Tillman, was one of the most enjoyable events of the season. It was given in honor of the horsemen, who leave this week with their horses for the East. Mr. Tillman spared no time nor expense to make the affair pleasant for his guests. The large dining room was handsomely decorated, and was used for dancing. At 12 o'clock an elaborate banquet was served.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR MRS. MILLER

Yesterday at Ashbury M. E. Church South memorial services were held for Mrs. Lucy A. Miller, who died in Arizona March 12th.

The pastor, Rev. J. C. Woden, in speaking of the life of Mrs. Miller, said that her life was not an accident, nor the result of outward circumstances, but was carefully planned with a consciousness of a great ideal and a patient, persistent working out and up to it.

The two great factors of her successful life were, first, her vision of truth by which she was able to triumph in her faith; the other was her devotion to duty.

This she escaped much of the trouble which comes to so many lives because of their uncertainty as to spiritual and eternal things.

Mrs. Miller leaves three children, Robert Miller, Charles Miller and Mrs. Byron Miller.

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband, but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Little Liver Pills, she cannot be for they make her "feel like a different person," so they all say, and their husbands say so too.
